

are organizing a game of

TREASURE HUNT

October 19, Saturday, 9am- 6pm

Start point- School of Architecture and Planning, Chennai

Dash around Chennai to collect pieces of a puzzle and while you're at it discover the inclusive face of Chennai.

A treasure hunt is being organized as part of 'People Building Better Cities', an international traveling exhibition which will run in Chennai from 8th-22nd October at the School of Architecture and Planning, Chennai (Anna University Campus).

The treasure hunt is a team event and teams will require a minimum of 4 members to participate. A team can have a maximum of 6 members.

Prior registration of teams is required to participate in the treasure hunt. Visit PBBC's website to register your team.

The maximum number of teams for the treasure hunt is capped at 10.

PLEASE NOTE THAT YOU WILL HAVE TO USE ONLY PUBLIC TRANSPORT TO GET AROUND THE CITY IN SEARCH OF CLUES.

This event is free and open to all.

PBBC Website: www.peoplebuildingbettercities.org

For any queries, write to info@urbandesigncollective.org with the subject line- 'Queries- Treasure Hunt at PBBC'

CHENNAI PARTNERS

School of Architecture & Planning | Anna University

Urban Design Collective

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

PEOPLE BUILDING BETTER CITIES

Participation and Inclusive Urbanization

A 2013 Traveling Exhibition